

FAKULTA
HUMANITNÍCH STUDIÍ
Univerzita Karlova

CONFERENCE:

Social processes, events and historical breakthroughs
from the perspective of historical sociology

Conference organizer:

The Historical Sociology Department, Faculty of Humanities,
Charles University in Prague

Conference dates: 14-15 June 2019

Conference location:

FHS UK building, U Kříže 8, 158 00, Prague – Jinonice, room
1036

Conference languages:

Czech, Slovak, English

ANNOTATION:

Social processes, events, and historical breakthroughs can be viewed from various perspectives. Historical sociology offers a unique viewpoint on groundbreaking events, which combines traditional sociological research and its historical perspective. Thus, the focus of interest becomes long-term social processes, alongside the analysis of the differences or similarities between different historical periods.

The following thematic areas are offered as possible topics for chosen presentations:

- Social, political, historical, and economic change and transformation

- Contemporary history and modernization

The project Social Processes, Events and Historical Breakthroughs from the Historical-Sociological Perspective was supported by Charles University's (Specific Academic Research Projects Competition (SVV), 260 485).

TERMS FOR PAPER VERSIONS OF CONTRIBUTIONS TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE MONOGRAPH:

- Submission of written contribution by September 1, 2019

- Contributions in the range of 15-25 standard pages (1 standard page = 1,800 characters). Scope includes footnotes.

- Written versions must be sent in .doc or .docx formats to hiso.conference2019@gmail.com.

- Globalization and civilization analysis, etc.

Submitted entries will undergo a thorough selection procedure, in order to decide which of the submitted contributions will be accepted into the conference program as well as to the proceedings that will follow the conference.

Each presentation should last 15-20 minutes. Candidates interested in the conference can register by May 20, 2019. In your application, please include the title of your contribution, a short C.V. and an abstract of 350 – 400 words. Applications should be sent to the following email address: hiso.conference2019@gmail.com.

CITATION STANDARD:

Texts in Historical Sociology journal use references to literature in the text and footnotes. Each item in the Bibliography must also be referenced in the text, otherwise it will be removed from the list. Quotations are governed by the appropriate citation standards and meet the following requirements:

References to literature in the Bibliography in the text only use square brackets. The links are in italics and have the form [Juergensmeyer 2008: 37-38], [Ness - Lopreato 1966], [Arnason 2012a; Arnason 2014] etc.

a) Monograph

Mezřický, Václav (ed.) [2003]. Globalizace. Praha: Portál.

Rhodewalt, Frederick – Peterson, Benjamin [2007]. The self and Social Behavior: The Fragile Self and Interpersonal Self-Regulation. New York: Taylor and Francis.

b) Studies in almanacs

Juergensmeyer, Mark [2006b]. From Bhindranwale to Bin Laden: A Search for Understanding Religious Violence. In. Cady, Linnell E. – Simon, Sheldon W. (eds.). Religion and Conflict in Asia: Disrupting Violence. London: Routledge, Taylor and Francis Group, s. 21–30.

c) Articles in journals

Ness, Robert C. – Lopreato, Joseph [1966]. Vilfredo Pareto – Sociologist or Ideologist? Sociological Quarterly 7 (1): 21–38.

d) Electronic documents

Juergensmeyer, Mark [2006b]. Religious Nationalism and Transnationalism in a Global World [online]. Dostupné z: [cit. 16. 10. 2008].