

June 8, 2018

The Role of Historians in Public Life: A Symposium

Schedule

8:30-
10:30

Panel One: Historians and Museums

Jakub Jareš | Contemporary history in Czech local museums
Kenneth Shefsiek | Quiet activism: encouraging empathy at historic house museums
Lisa R. Withers | Memories of school days: oral history and African American school museums

10:45-
12:45

Panel Two: Historians Addressing Social Problems

Maja Konstantinović | Encountering collective traumatic issues through public history projects
Marla Miller | Pedagogies of activism: helping students confront mass incarceration
Linda Kovářová | Approaching cultural heritage in Czech peripheral regions

12:45

Lunch at the NC State European Center

14:15-
16:15

Panel Three: Heritage Management

Luda Klusáková | The uses of the small towns' heritage as adaptation strategy
Alix R. Green | Developing a model for academic-archivist co-designed projects in business
Hana Havlůjová | Enjoying Czech heritage: what is the lesson we have learned?

16:30-
17:45

Panel Four: Interventions in Local History

Jaroslav Ira | The social functions of local history in small towns
Tammy Gordon | A lost cause in the town square: competing claims on local history in Raleigh, North Carolina

17:45-
18:45

Drinks & Appetizers at the European Center

Following there will be an optional dinner at a nearby restaurant

Location: NC State European Center Prague, Malé náměstí 1, Praha 1