Locating the exam

- After logging in, you will be able to see your dashboard. You should be easily able to locate the entrance exam, as it will be the only “course” displayed on your main page. You can also locate it in the menu on the left side of the page.

- After clicking on the link, the entrance exam course will be displayed. Here you can find the exam instructions – please, read them carefully.

The screenshot shows the 'Entrance exam - Liberal Arts and Humanities' page. The left sidebar is titled 'Liberal Arts and Humanities' and includes links for 'Participants', 'Badges', 'Competencies', 'Grades', 'Dear Applicant', 'Entrance Exam - Liberal Arts and Humanities', 'Dashboard', 'Site home', 'Calendar', and 'Private files'. The main content area has a header 'Entrance exam - Liberal Arts and Humanities' and a breadcrumb trail 'Dashboard / My courses / Liberal Arts and Humanities'. Below the header is a 'Dear Applicant,' section with the following text:

Welcome to the entrance exam for the Bachelor's programme Liberal Arts and Humanities at the Faculty of Humanities, Charles University.

The entrance exam will start on Monday, June 15th, at 3:00 p.m. CEST and last until 6:00 p.m. CEST.

The admission exam comprises of a summary of an English academic text and answers to follow-up questions based on the provided text. All parts are to be written in English only.

In the summary part, you are asked to outline the main points of the academic text concisely. Your summary should be well-thought-out, have a clear structure, and it should cover all the crucial lines of thought and arguments of the text. Do not insert any of your opinions, deductions or comments into the summary, since a good summary contains only the ideas of the original text. On the other hand, you should write in your own words, paraphrase the crucial topics and quote the text only where it is indispensable.

The follow-up questions should be based on your understanding of the text. Similarly, as in the summary part, using your own words is preferable.

Assessment will be based on the accuracy of the summary and answers.

- When you scroll down, you will find the test located under the instructions. At first, you will be able to see the sample exam, which serves for testing purposes. It allows you to familiarize yourself with the platform and the structure of the exam as well as prepare yourself for the official exam on June 15th, 2020. If you encounter any issues with the sample exam, please, let us know at study@fhs.cuni.cz so we can resolve any problems that may occur before the official exam date.
- The sample exam will be available until June 10th, 2020. The official exam link will be displayed shortly before the official exam date. The official exam will have the same format as the sample exam.

Taking the exam

- After clicking on the exam link, general information about the exam will be displayed to you. To begin working on the test, start by clicking on “Attempt quiz now”.

Please, write a one-page summary based on the following text from Hannah Arendt's The Life of the Mind. (Harcourt, Inc., 1977, pp. 129 – 141):

[...] Our question, What makes us think?, does not ask for either causes or purposes. Taking for granted man's need to think, it proceeds from the assumption that the thinking activity belongs among those energeiai which, like flute-playing, have their ends within themselves and leave no tangible outside end product in the world we inhabit. We cannot date the moment when this need began to be felt, but the very fact of language and all we know of pre-historical times and of mythologies whose authors we cannot name give us a certain right to assume that the need is coeval with the appearance of man on earth. What we can date, however, is the beginning of metaphysics and of philosophy, and what we can name are the answers given to our question at different periods of our history. Part of the Greek answer lies in the conviction of all Greek thinkers that philosophy enables mortal men to dwell in
