
Scholarships

Our Faculty does not provide any grants or other funding options that are intended to cover tuition fees of foreign-language study programs.

Scholarship for Outstanding Academic Achievement

- Scholarship for Outstanding Academic Achievement is administered by the Faculty of Humanities and is intended for students with excellent study results. The scholarship is paid out annually in the form of a lump-sum payment.
- Students who are enrolled in study as of November 30 and received at least 5 grades in the previous academic year are eligible for the scholarship. This means that students who have graduated, terminated or interrupted their studies as of November 30 are not eligible.
- All eligible students are considered automatically - they do not need to apply for the scholarship.
- Students who will receive the scholarship will be chosen by December 15. These students will be contacted via e-mail.
- The scholarship is paid out during the following January.
- You can check you grade average in the Student Information System (SIS) by clicking on Summary of Exam Results - Validations - Calculate scholarship average.
- The scholarship is awarded to the top 10% of students of each study programme.

Other Opportunities

Other options of funding your studies can be found through national governments and other non-state institutions. The Czech Ministry of Education, Youth, and Sports (MEYS) offers scholarships to foreign students and researchers. You can find out more information about scholarships available on the MEYS website .
