
Mgr. Markéta Pražáková Seligová, Ph.D.

Markéta PRAŽÁKOVÁ SELIGOVÁ, assistant professor

Research Areas

Courses

See SIS.

Contact Information and Office Hours

See SIS.

Education

- 1998–2009: Ph.D., Dept. of Czech History, Faculty of Arts, Charles University, Prague
- 1989–1994: Master's Degree in Bohemistik and History, Faculty of Education, J.E.Purkyně's University Ústí nad Labem;

Work Experience

- 1998–present: Dept. of History, Faculty of Humanities, Charles University, Prague
- 1996–1999: member of the international project Social Structures in Bohemia, 16th-19th centuries, financed by Volkswagenstiftung Project II 69 679
- 1994–1998: Faculty of Education, J.E.Purkyně's University Ústí nad Labem;

Publications

Monography

- The Lives of Serfs in the 18th Century: Destiny or Choice? Towards demographic, economic, social and family aspects of the lives of rural serfs living in the Estate of Horní Police, Praha 2015, ISBN 978-80-7476-060-0

Articles

- Geografická mobilita poddaného obyvatelstva v 1. polovině 18. století ve světle poddanských seznamů (The Geographical Mobility of the Serf Population in the First Half of the 18th Century as Recorded in the Serf Rolls), Historická demografie 28, Praha 2004, s. 4-58, ISSN: 0323-0937
- Sňatečnost na severočeském panství Horní Police v první polovině 18. století (K možnostem odhadu míry sňatečnosti v předstatistickém období) – Marriage Rates on the North Bohemian Estate of Horní Police in the First Half of the 18th Century (Means of Estimating Marriage Rates before the Introduction of Statistics), Historická demografie 29, Praha 2005, s.29-52, ISSN: 0323-0937