Accommodation Dormitories and other options

Charles University offers accommodation in its dormitories and residence halls. There are 11 residence halls in Prague – you can find the complete list on the Charles University Dormitories and Refectories page.

The university dormitories offer an affordable accommodation for all Charles University students. They also give you the opportunity to meet other students and take advantage of various student facilities, specific to each dormitory. They usually have great location near the city's public transport so you can get around Prague easily.

There are many different types of rooms you can book at all price points – you can expect the monthly costs to be anywhere between 150 euros to 400 euros based on which dormitory and type of room you want to book. You can find the price list on the Dormitories and Refectories website.

If you are enrolling in your first year at our Faculty, our Student Administration office will be happy to help you with your accommodation reservation at one of the dormitories. Contact us at study@fhscuni.cz and we will send you a reservation form based on which we will communicate on your behalf with the CU Dormitories and Refectories during the booking process. Please, be aware that we only offer this service to first-year students.

If you choose to live outside the University premises, you should expect to pay higher rent. Rent is usually paid monthly and varies depending on the size, location, and equipment / furniture already present in the apartment. According to the Study in Prague portal, you may pay anywhere from 500 – 650 EUR for a 1+1 flat in the suburbs to 650 – 800 EUR for the same flat in the more centre adjacent areas. You can also try booking a room in a private student residence, such as the one offered by THE FIZZ, Student Accommodation in Prague, or others.

Public Transport Getting around in the Czech Republic

Prague's public transport system consists of the metro, trams, and city buses. The city is well-known for its efficient and interconnected system of public transport which allows for fast, easy, and ecological means of travel. The public transport system is a reliable and affordable way to travel around Prague. As a general rule of thumb, you can get anywhere within the city limits under an hour. You can find out more about public transit in Prague here.

Prague is also a good starting point for further travels because of its central location and great connectedness to other Czech and European locations. All Czech cities, towns, and many villages have their train stations and are interconnected well enough to make train travel a convenient way of getting from one place to another. Because Prague is a transport hub, you can also travel beyond Czech borders and easily visit Germany, Austria, Poland, Slovakia, or Hungary, to name a few.

Health InsuranceGeneral Information and Links

Students arriving from the EU member states should make sure that they request a European health insurance card \(EHIC\) from their local health authorities before departing their home countries. EU nationals who are staying temporarily in the Czech Republic are entitled to receive urgent medical treatment free of charge.

Non-EU students should make sure that they have private medical insurance or they must expect to pay for all medical care. We strongly urge all non-EU international students to consult with their medical insurance company prior to travelling abroad to confirm whether their policy applies to the Czech Republic and whether it will cover emergency expenses. More information regarding medical insurance can be found here:

Prague also has several clinics that cater to English-speaking clients and can provide a network of services from basic examination to accompanying a patient to the hospital. Please note, however, that these are usually commercially operated and may charge a fee.

In case of emergency, use any hospital or health clinic. In case of an urgent emergency, call 112.
