FHS Courses Overview

You may view the courses of the Faculty of Humanities in foreign languages via the links below. In addition to our regular BA and MA courses including Erasmus Mundus EuroPhilosophie courses, you may also consider courses provided by our partners (UPCES, CERGE-EI and CET). Please note, some special enrolment requirements apply to both UPCES and CET courses (please see the information below).

You get detailed courses outline by clicking on the course title provided in the individual entry for each course listed in the overviews below.

- BA and MA Courses
- Erasmus Mundus EuroPhilosophie Courses (in German and French)
- UPCES Courses

Undergraduate Program in Central European Studies courses provided in cooperation with the FHS partner UPCES, CERGE-EI, CU. Exchange students can take up to 2 UPCES courses per semester in addition to the regular FHS courses depending on the available capacity. Due to very limited size of these courses, we are unable to guarantee the enrolment in the particular UPCES course you may suggest. For more detailed information on these courses see the UPCES courses section. These courses are listed under the YBAU code in the comprehensive CU course catalogue.

- CET Courses

Central European Studies and Jewish Studies courses provided in cooperation with the FHS partner CET Academic Programs. It is not possible to enrol these courses if you come just for a semester. These courses are available in spring semesters for those exchange students who are spending a full academic year at FHS only. Exchange students can take up to 2 CET courses per semester in addition to the regular FHS courses depending on the available capacity. These courses are listed under the YBAC code in the comprehensive CU course catalogue. For more detailed information on these courses see the CET courses section.
