
Study Abroad

As a full degree student at the Faculty of Humanities, you are eligible to study abroad. There are many options you can choose from, but the most suitable programme for you is Erasmus+ through which you can study abroad at one of our partner universities. The programme is very inclusive (there are no limitations as to citizenship or age) and if you get selected, you will be awarded a grant to help you fund your studies abroad.

Here is a quick overview of various exchange study programmes:

 - Study Stays - list of our partner universities is available here
 - Traineeships
 - Short-term doctoral mobilities
- Inter-University Agreements
- SYLFF
- Bilateral International Agreements
- Other mobility programmes
- Free Movers
- International Summer School Offers

Please, always make sure that the particular programme to which you are applying accepts English speakers or non-Czech citizens. If you do get selected and you are not an EU resident, make sure that you fulfill all the visa requirements before you go abroad. Simultaneously, you might pay extra for visa fees, health insurance etc., so make sure that you have sufficient funds to cover all of your expenses abroad as well as upon your return. While abroad, you are not excused from paying the tuition fees here at the Faculty.
