
Undergraduate

The Faculty of Humanities offers an undergraduate (Bachelor's) study program Liberal Arts and Humanities (taught in English) and one undergraduate study program in Czech.

Application Form and Deadline

Application deadline is March 31, 2019.

Application form is available here.

Admission Exam Date

Exam date for the bachelor's study program Liberal Arts and Humanities is each year in May. Detailed timing and date to be determined later.

Exception: Any applicant who cannot take the admission exam at its scheduled time due to illness or another reasonable cause is allowed to take the exam at a later time. The applicant must formally request the extension through the Student Administration Office no later than June 2.

Admission Information

A letter announcing the exam's date is sent to applicants in advance.

Deadline for applicants/admitted applicants to submit a copy of their high school (secondary school) diploma is September 30, 2019. Applicants who take their final high school exams in September, as well as those who won't get a recognition of their foreign diploma till the end of September, are allowed to submit a copy of a high school diploma along with a copy of a recognition of foreign education no later than October 22, 2019.

For more information about nostrification/recognition of previous study check it here

Applicants with a disability, such as a specific learning difficulty, can request that the admission process be specially adapted to meet their needs. In this case a medical report must be included in the application form.

Applicants are required to prove their identity with an ID/passport to take the exam.

The entrance exam description and admission requirements are stated in the respective program links above.

Further Information

For much more detailed information please proceed to the official web page of the program.

Contact person: Vratislav Kozák - Head administrator of said program

E-mail: vratislav.kozak@fhs.cuni.cz

Phone: +420 251 080 211/363