Rector's Sports Day and other sport events

The traditional Rector's Sports Day is an opportunity for students and teaching staff of the University's Prague faculties to meet members of the public – both on and off the sports field. The Sports Day showcases a wide range of sporting disciplines. The Sports Day website contains a list of the sports grounds and facilities where the events take place, plus a detailed overview of the various sports and the complete programme of the upcoming Rector's Sports Day.

For more information on various sport events organized by the Charles University you can visit the relevant CU website .
