
The seminar of the philosophical module in Lipnice

The seminar of the philosophical module in Lipnice

On June 28, 2016 a traditional seminar of the philosophical module in Lipnice nad Sázavou took place. An important Czech writer Jaroslav Hašek lived and worked in Lipnice from 1921 till his death in 1923. On the seminar lectures were given by both the teachers in the philosophical module (S. Synek, J. Kružík, J. Novotný) and by other experts on philosophy and literary theory (V. Jílek, R. Pytlík, F. Podhajský). The places connected with Hašek's life were the perfect setting for discussions on the connection of philosophy and art, on poetry, philosophy or the importance of Hašek's work.