DISCIPLINARY CODE FOR STUDENTS OF THE FACULTY OF HUMANITIES OF CHARLES UNIVERSITY

Under sections 27 (1) (b) and 33 (2) (e) of Act No. 111/1998 Sb., to regulate higher education institutions and to change and amend other laws ("the Higher Education Act"), as amended, and under Article 9 (1) (b) of the Constitution of the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University, as amended, the Academic Senate of the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University has adopted the following Disciplinary Code for Students of the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University as its internal regulation:

Article 1
Introductory Provisions

1. This Disciplinary Code for Students of the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University provides, in accordance with Article 1 (2) of the Disciplinary Code for Students of Charles University, certain details on the Disciplinary Board of the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University ("the Board") and the rules of procedure of this Board at the Faculty of Humanities of Charles University ("the Faculty" and "the University", respectively).
2. Infringements of disciplinary rules by students enrolled in the Faculty, the imposition of sanctions for such infringements, and disciplinary proceedings are regulated by the Higher Education Act[1], the Administrative Procedure Code and the Disciplinary Code for Students of the University.

Article 2
Disciplinary Board of the Faculty

1. The Board has at least six members. Half of the members of the Board are students.[2]
2. The members of the Board are appointed and removed by the Dean with the approval of the Academic Senate of the Faculty.
3. The term of office of the members of the Board is two years and begins with their appointment.
4. Membership in the Board terminates:
    a) upon expiry of the term of office;
    b) before expiry of the term of office:
        i. on the date specified in the decision on removal;
        ii. on the date on which membership in the academic community of the Faculty terminates;
        iii. on the date of delivery of a written declaration by which the member resigns from membership in the Board.

[1] In particular, sections 64 to 66 and 69 of the Higher Education Act.
[2] The second sentence of section 31 (1) of the Higher Education Act.

5. Where a position of a member of the Board falls vacant under paragraph 4 (b), the Dean appoints a new member of the Board without delay for the remainder of the term of office of the member whose position has fallen vacant.
6. The Dean's Office provides assistance to the Board.

Article 3

Rules of Procedure of the Board

1. If the Board receives a proposal for the commencement of disciplinary proceedings against one of its members, that member is excluded from considering and deciding the matter.
2. The Board decides by secret ballot if at least one of its members so requests.

Article 4

Transitional Provisions

1. Disciplinary proceedings commenced before the effective date of this Code will be completed under this Code and the Disciplinary Code for Students of the University.
2. The term of office of the members of the Board appointed before the effective date of this Code is not affected.
3. The positions of alternate members under the Disciplinary Code for Students of the University of 14 December 2016 and under the previous Disciplinary Code for Students of the Faculty are abolished.

Article 5

Final Provisions

1. The Disciplinary Code for Students of the Faculty approved by the Academic Senate of the University on 23 June 2017 is hereby repealed.
2. This Code was approved by the Academic Senate of the Faculty on 9 April 2026.
3. This Code comes into force on the date of its approval by the Academic Senate of the University.[3]
4. This Code becomes effective on 1 October 2026.
